Prayer...

Lover of my soul,

I invite you in. I give you permission to come and renew, to come and restore, come and transform my mind and heart in the ways that only you can.

May I see the challenges that come from dating as opportunities to grow. Please give me the courage to not settle, to be reminded of my worth, and to see myself and others through your eyes.

I ask that you unite my heart to your most Sacred Heart with every heartbeat. May I believe that only you can fulfill my every desire. Heal me, speak truth to me and remind me that I am yours. I entrust my vocation to you. Help me to recognize and follow your voice. Jesus, I chose to surrender it all to you because I trust you and I love you.

Amen
